ANNUAL REPORT 2018-2019

🖙 Historic character enriches our lives 🕬

GREATER PORTLAND LANDMARKS' mission is to preserve and revitalize Greater Portland's remarkable legacy of historic buildings, neighborhoods, landscapes, and parks.

With your crucial support we have connected more than 25,000 people to the stories of their homes, neighborhoods and communities, encouraging adaptive-use and enhancing greater Portland's character of place. You have made the following possible:

Shaping the future, respecting the past.

Advocated for policies that protect historic resources as part of several Portland planning initiatives:

- » Advocated for a historic district on Munjoy Hill to protect the historic neighborhood.
- » Participated in drafting recommendations for South Portland's new historic preservation ordinance.
- » Joined a national coalition of preservation advocates to protect public participation in the federal process of listing properties on National Register of Historic Places.

Influenced 6 new construction and 3 rehabilitation projects in Portland:

- » 40 Free Street, development of 51 new units of housing and 8,000 SF of retail in the Congress Street Historic District
- » 5-7 India Street, a new mixed-use building with 24 apartments in the Portland Waterfront Historic District.
- » 95 India Street, a new single family home in the India Street Historic District.

- » 100 Fore Street, construction of a new 539-car parking garage and office building adjacent to the Portland Company Historic District.
- » 1 Center Street, a new hotel in the Portland Waterfront Historic District.
- » 80 Exchange Street, a new mural in Tommy's Park.
- » 84 Commercial Street, a new kitchen addition for a long-time Portland restaurant affected by recurrent tidal flooding.
- » 140 Congress Street, reuse of the former Moody House and church as a single family home and hostel
- » 33-37 Montreal Street development of 14 unit of housing in the new Munjoy Hill Conservation Overlav District.

Made progress saving 6 Places in Peril, Greater Portland's most significant endangered properties:

» Hay & Peabody's Seth Thomas Clock (1925), Portland – Worked with development team and clockmakers to plan a restoration funding campaign.

- » Lincoln Park (1866), Portland Advocated for city funding to restore the park's walkways.
- » African American Resources on Portland's Peninsula (1800-1900). Portland – Advocated for inclusion of several resources associated early African American settlers on Munjoy Hill in the proposed historic district boundaries.
- » Abyssinian Meeting House (1896-1915). Portland – Launched a second season of neighborhood walking tours in partnership with the Committee to Restore the Abvssinian
- » South Portland's Historic Resources -Endorsed text amendments to protect all pre-1941 resources with a 90-day demolition delay and incentivize reuse of historic buildings with conditional use provisions in all zones.
- » Grand Trunk Railroad Office (1903), Portland -Celebrated the restoration of the building with the presentation of a preservation award to Gorham Savings Bank.

Recognized 8 outstanding leaders and projects with Preservation Honor Awards

- » Preservation Leaders:
- » Marianne Chapman
- » Troy Bennett

Restoration and Rehabilitation Projects:

- » Conant-Payson Block (1866), 30 Exchange Street, Portland
- » State Theatre Marguee (1929), 609 Congress Street, Portland
- » Grand Trunk Railroad Office Building (1903), 1 India Street, Portland

Adaptive Reuse Projects:

- » Brick South (1904), Thompson's Point, Portland
- » The Motherhouse at Baxter Wood (1909), 605 Stevens Avenue, Portland
- » Plummer Senior Living (1931), 192 Middle Road, Falmouth

Forged strong partnerships to identify and preserve historic resources:

» Surveyed 242 Buildings in Deering Highlands with support from a Historic Preservation Grant from the National Park Service, Also Boulevard Park, East Deering, Nason's Corner, Peaks Island and Morrill's Corner.

» Achieved National Register listing for the Hawkes Plaza Sign in Westbrook for its significance to art and commerce, working with the Westbrook Historical Society and the Maine Historic Preservation Commission.

» Partnered with the Munjoy Hill Neighborhood Organization and the City of Portland to fund a designation report for Munjoy Hill.

Historic Markers get a new look:

» Redesigned Landmarks' Historic Marker and program review process in order to expand the program's reach and emphasize more modest dwellings alongside the grandiose. Printed on a more durable material, the new design highlights the context of each structure, giving information about the namesake and includes the architect when possible.

Trained four future preservation leaders through our summer internship program, who conducted Maine's first survey of historic buildings at risk from climate change.

Bringing to life the remarkable stories behind historic places.

Welcomed 17,853 visitors to the Observatory

- » Welcomed visitors from 43 States and 60 foreign countries.
